Fall Core Curriculum

Academic Calendar

Class of 2022 Core Schedule

- Fall A
  - Microeconomics
  - Leading People
- Fall B
  - Marketing
  - Data & Decisions
Core Waiver Exams (Fall Term)

- Fall waiver exams for Microeconomics, Marketing and Data & Decisions
  - Sign up by Friday, July 11
  - Test dates:
    - Thursday, July 18 from 6:00-9:00 PM
    - Saturday, July 20 from 1:00-4:00 PM
    - Sunday, July 21 from 9:00 AM-12:00 PM
- You should sign up if you have any interest in waiving or think you could pass. There will be no opportunity to take the waiver exam at a later date and we will not entertain requests to defer a core course so that you can take the waiver exam the following year.

- Information on Spring waiver exams (held in early December) to come later
- Students who qualify for an automatic waiver (CPA, CFA certifications, etc.) should submit their documentation to Amanda Gill
Course & Program Materials

• Required textbooks will be listed on your cohort website
• You are responsible for acquiring your textbooks
• Course readers (electronic access only) are included in your tuition fees and will be available via study.net
  – A printed textpak is available at your own cost
  – You have a printing credit which allows you to print at the Haas Computer Center

study.net
Academic & Social Cohort Representatives

• Great leadership opportunity
• Serve as key point of contact between your professors, classmates and EW Program Office
• Submit your application online by August 4
• ACR interviews in early August
• SCR elections in mid-August
EVENTS
WE Launch

Start: Friday, July 26 at 10:00 AM
End: Sunday, July 28 at 1:30 PM
Data & Decisions: Pre-Term Workshop

• 100% online and housed within bCourses (our learning management platform)
• Designed to help you navigate the first 12 chapters of the D&D textbook and be ready for the quiz on Day 1 of Data & Decisions in Fall B
• Students with a quantitative background should use the workshop as a guide to determine whether they should take the D&D waiver exam
Sexual Harassment Prevention Training

• This is a campus requirement
• Watch your email for a customized link to complete online training
• Deadline = July 12
• Failure to complete the online training will prevent your enrollment in Spring classes
Immunizations & Tuberculosis Risk

- Campus-wide policy requires UC Berkeley graduate students to show proof of specific immunizations and complete a TB Risk questionnaire
- Notification comes via CalCentral
- Forms can be filled out online via eTang Patient Portal
- Check the UHS website for updates
