For organizational leaders who want to create and cultivate high-performing, inclusive, innovative cultures.

2024-25 Corporate Engagement Opportunities
The Berkeley Center for Workplace Culture and Innovation brings together corporate and academic leaders who understand the importance of a positive organizational culture. Informed by rigorous, evidence-based research, we identify the most pressing challenges and promising opportunities related to influencing culture. We clearly demonstrate the transformative power inherent in harnessing culture as an effective strategic tool, as well as the high cost of neglecting it. We accomplish our work through a portfolio of meaningful activities delivered year-round.

WHY JOIN US?
HOW TO GET INVOLVED?

01. Buy a ticket to the Culture Connect Conference
   The easiest way to engage with us! Our annual conference takes place in January. Attending our conference is an excellent way to immerse yourself in the latest academic research and industry trends related to workplace culture. See more information on page 6.

02. Join the Berkeley Culture Collective
   This unique opportunity allows your organization to send two representatives to attend two specially designed learning & networking dinners each year. These events are curated to foster deep conversations, share learnings and insights based on the latest research and industry practices, and build meaningful relationships among professionals passionate about shaping the future of workplace culture. See more information on page 8.

03. Sponsor the Culture Connect Conference
   Your organization can demonstrate its commitment to fostering and developing positive workplace cultures in a meaningful way. As a sponsor, you’ll enjoy enhanced visibility and brand recognition among a distinguished audience of professionals, as well as a suite of benefits (see more information on page 11). This is an excellent way to position your company as a key player in shaping the future of work.

CONFERENCE PREVIEW

WHAT IS IT?
The Culture Connect Conference is an annual event hosted by the Berkeley Center for Workplace Culture and Innovation at the Haas School of Business. It brings together industry leaders and academic experts to explore and discuss the latest themes and insights on organizational culture.

WHAT TOPICS ARE COVERED?
The conference dives deep into pressing topics such as the future of hybrid workspaces, the transformative role of generative AI, and strategies for fostering diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging (DEIB). Through a blend of keynote speeches, panel discussions, networking sessions, and workshops, participants engage in rich dialogues about these critical issues.

WHO ATTENDS?
The 2024 conference brought together more than 100 academics and 150 industry leaders from 70 companies across different sectors, such as healthcare, tech, and finance. Participants included HR executives, researchers, and mid-to-senior-level professionals interested in the latest insights and practices in organizational culture. View our 2024 speaker lineup.
