

BERKELEY CHARTER OF PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANCY

BerkeleyHaas

Accounting
@Berkeley
CENTER FOR FINANCIAL
REPORTING AND MANAGEMENT

Learn the “language of business” - Accounting, prepare for the CPA exam, and demonstrate your commitment to employers by completing the Berkeley Charter of Professional Accountancy (BCPA) program at UC Berkeley. In just two summers you can complete all of the coursework needed to satisfy the 30 accounting units needed for CPA licensure.

Courses focus on fundamental technical skills and real-world applications to enhance your marketability. The Center for Financial Reporting and Management’s relationships with global, national, and regional accounting firms provide you the connections needed to enter the business world. Program fee includes office visits to global accounting firms in San Francisco and CFRM support throughout the recruiting process. Past BCPA graduates have landed positions at Deloitte, EY, KPMG, and PwC.
