WHAT CAN I DO WITH MY DEGREE?

At Haas, you will gain the knowledge and technical skills needed to navigate the challenging economic and societal issues of today as well as receive the essential experience required to make a sustained, positive impact. There are countless rewarding career paths including the well blazed trails of the traditional ABC’s (Accounting, Banking, and Consulting) and the ever evolving emprise of entrepreneurship. A Haas degree will allow you to explore every spectacular possibility of success and provide you with the tools, skills and connections necessary to impact change.

The Haas Undergraduate Program provides career advising services to students through two career counselors. Our counselors offer their insights and experience regarding a flexible range of career questions, including but not limited to resume development, interview skills, job negotiations, and much more. Students can also access services from Berkeley Career Engagement, including career and graduate school advising, job and internship listings, and career and graduate school fairs.

SPOTLIGHT

Karen Lin, Career Counselor

Karen Lin is the designated Career Counselor for Haas undergraduate students through Berkeley Career Engagement. Whether you’re looking for a traditional career in business administration or you’re trying to forge your own path, Karen will help you understand the landscape of the business world.

Make appointments on the Handshake platform with her for help with exploring career paths, job search and networking strategies, interview preparation, negotiating an offer, and more!

Undergraduate Advising

Prospective students can speak with a Haas Admissions Representative via in-person, drop-in advising at S460 Haas School of Business or by virtual appointment. Visit haas.berkeley.edu/undergrad/admissions/events-and-advising or email uginfo@haas.berkeley.edu.

Students currently in the Business Administration major can meet with a Haas Academic Advisor in-person to discuss academic progress, questions about courses, and how to maximize your time at Berkeley. Advisors are available in S460 via drop-in advising or by appointment through CalCentral. Visit haas.berkeley.edu/undergrad/academics/advising/.

We encourage all students to participate in international education programs to broaden their education and develop a global business view. Schedule an academic advising appointment in your first Haas semester with the Associate Director of Global Experience to make a plan.

Continuing Berkeley students who plan to apply for Haas should work with their current College Advisor for general program planning, finding campus resources, and alternative/double major and minor options.
