

INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM OVERVIEW

KEY DATES

- March 2: International Exchange info Webinar
- March 16: Application process begins
- March 30: Application deadline
- April 1: Decision and Notifications sent
- April 11: Deadline for students to accept/decline

WHY GO ON EXCHANGE

- Personal and professional growth
- Academic enrichment
- Immersion into a new culture
- Exposure to international business practices

HOW IT WORKS

- Students are enrolled in EW298X International Exchange Program (10 units) and pay regular tuition at UC Berkeley
- You must take the equivalent of a full-time course load for that school (10-12 units)

CONDITIONS

- You cannot participate in an International Exchange Program to your home country
- You must have a 3.0 cumulative GPA (minimum) and a student in good standing at the time of application
- You must have completed the EWMBA Core Curriculum
- You cannot be working during the time of your exchange

TRADE-OFFS

- Recruiting: Most of the International Exchange Programs occur during the Fall Semester, which limits your ability to participate in On Campus Recruiting
- The grading system may be different at the host University
- Financial Aid – if you are a recipient, contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss the impact

HOW TO DECIDE WHERE TO GO

- Review the Partner Schools at a Glance document
- International Exchange Program's website
- Partner school's websites
- BEST RESOURCE: Students who have previously done exchanges.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Submit the application ONLINE by Wednesday, March 30, 2022.

SELECTION PROCESS

- If demand exceeds supply for your choice school, it's based on seniority; within the same year a lottery will be used to determine placement
- Unsuccessful applicants may choose from schools that are not full