

Partnership Opportunities

The Center for Equity, Gender & Leadership works with individuals and companies who are committed to developing purpose-driven leaders.

Custom Executive Education Programs

Our custom programs are designed to meet the needs of individuals and organizations committed to enhancing their leadership skills and impact. This is a customizable program offering various program structures and curriculum modules. We will work with you to understand your opportunities and needs to design a bespoke offering that provides the greatest possible impact.

Team Retreats

Business leaders understand that to remain relevant and effective, they must employ strategies and outcomes that create positive impact. Our team retreats provide the inspiration, education and practical tools needed to turn your employees into purpose driven leaders. Team retreats are highly customizable and can be delivered using topics activities most relevant to your team.

Event Sponsorship

We host Industry Roundtables, Research Convenings, Case Competitions and other events that support the development of impact leaders. Sponsorship of these events gives visibility of your organization to our students, community and other industry leaders. Sponsorship is possible at different levels, with different benefits depending on the amount.
