

Empower Your Leadership Journey Changemakers - Leadership Communications

3 Unit Class - UGBA 191L

Fall 2023, Haas School of Business, Thursdays 8.00 – 11.00 am.

"I feel incredibly lucky to have taken a class where empathy, listening, and genuine understanding and curiosity are at the heart of everything we did. Leadership Communications is equipping the next generation of leaders with core skills to thrive in our ever-changing world: ones who will go out into the world and listen to others, seek to gain genuine understanding of situations, always lead with an empathetic mindset."

Miaad Bushala (Class of 2022)

Instructors: - Dr. Mark Rittenberg – Ingrid Gavshon – Susan Houlihan

Join us on a journey of self-discovery and social impact.

Leadership Communications is a transformational class that will empower you to become an authentic leader, an effective communicator, a skilled coach, a dynamic presenter and use filmmaking to effect change.

- Be a catalyst for positive change.
- Unlock your leadership potential.
- Enhance communication, storytelling, and presentation skills.
- Create impactful documentaries.
- Develop coaching and inclusion abilities.
- Explore social justice issues, develop empathy, and critical thinking.

1: Leadership Communications - Confidence Without Attitude

2: Filmmaking for Change - Beyond Yourself: Leading with Social Responsibility

3: Coaching for Potential - Question the Status Quo

4. Catalyst for Change – Students Always

For further information contact gavshon@berkeley.edu